

Data Centers Canada Expands Toronto Colocation and Disaster Recovery Facility

Issue Date: October 1, 2009

Toronto, Ontario Canada – October 1, 2009 – Data Centers Canada Inc., a leading Toronto Data Center operator which develops, manages and operates Canadian data center real estate for colocation services has announced it has expanded its Toronto North data center facilities which is located in the City of Vaughan, Ontario.

The Toronto North facility which is in close proximity to 400 series highways and is minutes away from Pearson International Airport and the downtown financial district provides a state of the art data center environment including;

- * 2N Redundancy
- * Carrier Neutral Environment
- * Managed Meet Me Room
- * 151 Front Street backhaul provides access to dozens of leading carriers
- * VESDA & Inergen Systems
- * Roof top tower colocation available
- * Triple Layer Security including Biometric Recognition

The Toronto North data center facility provides various colocation configurations including racking solutions, private cages / suites with a capacity of over 200 racks.

For additional information, reserve space or schedule a tour, please;

Visit: www.datacenterscanada.com e-mail: sales@datacenterscanada.com
call: 1-888-591-4778

About Data Centers Canada

Operating since 2004 in Toronto, Ontario Canada, Data Centers Canada Inc., operates, develops and manages Canadian real estate for the purpose of providing turn-key data center solutions including colocation and disaster recovery solutions for enterprises who seek to cost effectively expand their data center capacity or outsource existing data center operations.